HOLY WEEK

The week that changed the world.

From the Vicar's Desk

Dearly beloved in Christ,

Believers world over are in great anticipation to observe the 'Holy Week' amid uncertainties of the Corona virus now spread across more than hundred countries; the extent of which is still unclear. We are experiencing something new in human history; learning fresh approaches to contain such epidemics. For some, this is the wrath of God, for others it is mother nature's fury and to certain others, this is nothing but a joke. One of my friends, George Sam, a theologian and a scholar expressed the following: "The planet has begun to deploy its most sophisticated arsenal towards climate change: biological weapons. And it is paying back humanity with the same token: we tried to choke the planet in CO2, it is now trying to choke us with a virus that is a respiratory pathogen. Isn't it...vironic?" If we continue to act like the 'devil' who offers power and wealth for our enjoyment, then we are in the wrong direction. We need a novel kind of Fasting, innovative ways of Praying and fresh ways of Resurrecting our ruined planet earth, to mark the vision; a new heaven and a new earth. Rethink - Jesus said; "I tell you, but

THE KNOTS PRAYER

Dear God,

Please untie the knots that are in my mind, my heart and my life.

Remove the have nots, the can nots and the do nots that I have in my mind.

Erase the will nots, may nots, might nots that may find a home in my heart.

Release me from the could nots, would nots and should nots that obstruct my life.

And most of all, Dear God

I ask that you remove from my mind, my heart and my life all of the 'am nots' that I have allowed to hold me back, especially the thought that I am not good enough.

unless you repent, you will all perish as they did". We have exploited the natural resources to the maximum, but there is a great disparity in sharing these resources. It is high time to rethink and repent of our sins especially in our transactions with other species on this planet. Repentance is to "turn around" and to look at the world in a new way and calls for a change and urges us to adopt a new perspective.

Respect - Respect the earth and millions of species that God has created to be interdependent. Earth has the potential and power to rise up from 'nothingness'; but not humans. In fact, humans need earth to survive, more than earth needing us. This is a season to recollect the preciousness of Christ-events that took place in Jerusalem in conjunction with the sacrifices the earth makes to help us survive as the 'crown of creation'.

It is my prayer and wish this season that every Christian, treat the earth's resources with respect and care. Following Jesus' exemplary life, we will need to abstain from hatred and all forms of violence, and instead embrace the gospel of co-operation, interdependence and care. In our missional calling being part of St. Peter's congregation in Bundoora, we will need to strategise to effectively participate in this salvific act to help recreate a new heaven and a new earth. Let's hope and pray that in our intra conversations and connections, we will emulate Jesus' teachings and refresh ourselves once again this season.

Wishing you all a blessed Easter.

Easter Story – (Story taken from the Gospel of Mathew) by Reena Thomas

After Jesus finished the Lord's Supper, Jesus, along with his disciples, went to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." He took Peter with him and the two sons of Zebedee. Grief and anguish came over him, and he said to them, "The sorrow in my heart is so great that it almost crushes me. Stay here and keep watch with me." Jesus threw himself on the ground and prayed to his father to take the cup of suffering from him, if possible, but prayed that the father's wish be fulfilled.

Then Jesus went away again three times to pray saying the same words. When he returned he saw the disciples sleeping. The first time when he came back and saw them sleeping, he said to Peter, "How is it that you three were not able to keep watch with me, even for one hour? Keep watch and pray that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak". The second time when Jesus went away, he prayed to the father to remove the cup of suffering, if not, the father's will be done. When Jesus returned he found his disciples sleeping again for they could not keep their eyes open.

He then said to the disciples that the hour has come for the Son of Man to be handed over to the power of sinful men. "Get up, let us go, look, here is the man who is betraying me!" At that time, Judas one of his disciples, arrived with a large crowd armed with swords and clubs sent by high priests to arrest Jesus. Judas went straight to Jesus and said, "Peace be with you, Teacher," and kissed him as arranged earlier with the priests by Judas. They then arrested Jesus and took him before the council.

Jesus was taken to the house of Caiaphas, the High Priest, Peter followed him from a distance as far as the courtyard of the High Priest's house. The chief priests and the whole council tried to find false evidence against him to put him to death. But two men stepped up and said, "This man said, I am able to tear down God's Temple and three days later build it up again". The High Priest stood up and said to Jesus, "Have you no answer to give to this accusation against you?" But Jesus kept quiet. The High Priest put him under oath and asked him if he was the Messiah the Son of God. Jesus answered him by saying, "So you say, from this time on you will see the Son of Man sitting on the right of the Almighty and coming on the clouds of heaven". At this the High Priest tore his clothes and said, "Blasphemy! they do not need anymore witnesses, he is guilty". The crowd agreed with the High Priest and said that he must die.

During this time, Peter sitting in the courtyard was asked by the servant girls if he was one among Jesus disciples, but he totally denied this in front of all of them. Peter was asked the same question by two other people, but he denied and asked what were they talking about. After the third time, the cock crowed and Peter remembered what Jesus told him: "Before the cock crows, you will say three times that you do not know me". Peter wept bitterly.

Early in the morning all the chief priests and the elders made their plans against Jesus to put him to death. They put him in chains and sent him off to Pilate, the Governor of Rome. Jesus stood before the Roman Governor who questioned him, "Are you the king of the Jews?" He asked. Even though Pilate asked him several questions, Jesus remained silent, which surprised the Governor. At every Passover Festival the Roman Governor sets a prisoner free, the crowd asked for. At that time there was a well-known prisoner called Barabbas. The crowd asked him to be set free and Jesus to be crucified. Pilate set Barabbas free and after, he had Jesus whipped and handed him over to the crowd to be crucified.

Then Pilate's soldiers took Jesus into the Governor's palace, and the whole company gathered around him and mocked him in many ways, knelt before him and said, "Long live the King of the Jews!" When they finished mocking him they led him out to crucify him. As they were leaving, they met a man named Simon and the soldiers forced him to carry the cross. When they came to a place called Golgotha, which means "The Place of the Skull", they offered Jesus wine mixed with bitter substance, but after tasting it, he would not drink it. They crucified him and divided his clothes among them by throwing dice. Above his head they put the written notice of accusation against him: "This is Jesus the King of the Jews".

At noon the whole country was covered in darkness, which lasted for three hours. At about 3 o'clock Jesus breathed his last with a loud shout, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" which means, "My God, my God why did you abandon me?" When it was evening, a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph arrived. He asked Pilate for Jesus body, which he took, wrapped it in a new linen sheet, and placed it in his own tomb which he had just recently dug out of solid rock and placed a large stone across the entrance to the tomb and went away. On the Sabbath at the request of the chief priests to Pilate, the tomb of Jesus was ordered to be guarded by guards.

After Sabbath, Sunday morning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look in the tomb. Suddenly there was a sudden Earthquake: an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, rolled the stone away and sat on it, his clothes were white as snow. The angel spoke to the women. "You must not be afraid", he said, "Jesus who was crucified is not here, he has been raised just as he said." The angel advised the women to break the news to the disciples as well. So they left the tomb in a hurry and ran to tell the disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, "Peace be with you." They came up to him, took hold of his feet and worshipped him.

Jesus said, "Do not be afraid and tell the disciples he will see them at Galilee".

Who is Who in the Pew - Jean Robertson

Jean was born in Warminster, in Wiltshire, England. Jean met her husband Chris, when he was stationed at the Army Base in her home town. They married in 1951. Chris and Jean had two sons, Ian and David, and she has 7 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. Chris worked for a firm which made plastic shoe components and was sponsored to come to work in a factory in Thomastown. They resided in Thomastown before having their home built in Plenty Road Bundoora in 1964.

Jean and her family attended services in a weatherboard building over the road from our current premises. She clearly remembers that services at that time were conducted by a vicar from Greensborough. Jean is one of a couple of the original parishioners and Chris was on the first Vestry. Chris was on the Committee which planned our original church. Our current church was built in stages. It started off as a hall, (needed for income), and has over the years had a couple of extensions.

Jean enjoyed being an active member of the Young Wives, she remembers the GFS, CEBS, the large Sunday School for children, and also the band in which her husband played the trumpet. Chris and Jean enjoyed Scottish Dancing. Today Jean enjoys the friendship, fellowship and the outings for a coffee with her friends from St Peter's.

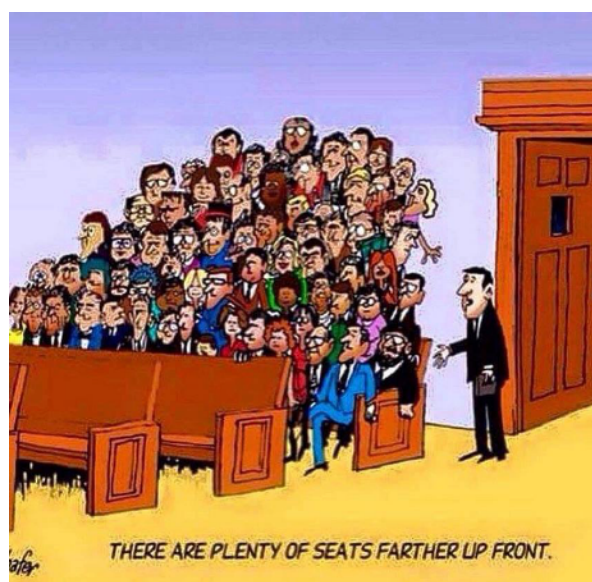

Jean with Bishop Kate Prowd

Jean has been at St Peter's from the first brick, How wonderful to still see Jean's smiling face each Sunday worshipping with us here at St Peter's.

Did you know?

- * The opening and dedication of St Peter's building attracted more than 200 people on Saturday 29th June, 1968 - St Peter's Day.
- * In 1969, St Peter's Sunday School had an enrolment of 209 children and an average weekly attendance of 120 children.

Looking Back

Australia Day Service

This year at the conclusion of the Australia Day Service, all students commencing school or returning to school or university, were invited to the communion rail, where Rev Jobby prayed for them and blessed them. An Australia Day Breakfast was then on offer; a typical Australia Day Breakfast was certain to satisfy the taste buds of the many who participated. What did they have on the menu? You will need to come next year to find out.

Bunnings Thomastown Sausage Sizzle

It was just before 7.00 in the morning that the first shift of volunteers arrived at Bunnings, Keen and enthusiastic about the potential of the day ahead. Grey clouds and a sprinkle of rain did not deter them from their goal. By about 7.30am, the "kitchen" was ready, the barbecue fired up and the first of the snags were on the hot plate. It wasn't long before the smell of fried onions greeted the nostrils of Bunnings' customers. The day had started.

During the course of the day the various rostered teams arrived and departed; time marched on; the rain fell, the sun shone and then grey skies yet again. The teams had but one focus, cook, wrap and sell. Despite the requirement to work through until 4.00, there were still people queuing at 4.30pm.

The day had passed quickly; all participants felt pleased with the role they had played and there was a sense of achievement and teamwork amongst the group. The clean-up was closely supervised by the team leader who farewelled the workers and headed upstairs to finalise details and check the proceeds. This task at the end of the day was somewhat prolonged as Bunnings were careful to check receipts and purchases to make sure everything was above board.

Sometime after five or was it six, Nicole was able to head home for a well-earned rest, satisfied that her efforts had been greatly rewarded. Despite the inclement weather and a chill in the air, the proceeds for the day were $1000 without a stack of bread and sausages to worry about. Congratulations to all.

Ash Wednesday

A service is held on each Wednesday morning, but on the 26th February it was a little different, as it was Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent. On this day, the congregation was much larger than usual. During the service a cross is drawn, with ash, on the forehead of parishioners. It is a custom to burn the palm crosses from the previous year's Palm Sunday and use the ash provided as a "paint" to draw the crosses.

This notice can be found in French churches:

It is possible that on entering this church, you may hear the Call of God. On the other hand, it is not likely that He will contact you by phone. Thank you for turning off your phone. If you would like to talk to God, come in, choose a quiet place, and talk to Him. If you would like to see Him, send him a text whilst driving.

Pancake Tuesday

Our regular hostess might have been missing, but everything was prepared and ready to go. Bolognese sauce and a salmon mornay were available for the first course with opportunities for seconds. The next course offered pancakes with various toppings; strawberry jam and cream, strawberries and ice cream; plus some other delights.

The company was convivial, the weather fine and a glass of wine to start the meal ensured everyone went home with a smile on their face.

World Day of Prayer

World Day of Prayer was observed on March 6th at our parish. This year, prayers were for Zimbabwe. Several from our parish and surrounding parishes attended this afternoon event. Thanks to all those who provided afternoon tea and snacks.

Last Chance Deb Ball

A number of our ladies had the pleasure of being escorted down the red carpet to be introduced to our special guest, Cupid. While our musicians were happy to play music and there was some dancing, most people were happy to sit and chat. Plenty of opportunities for laughter and a delicious light supper prepared by Noni, to complete the night. It wasn't a late night, but those present were kept occupied. Everyone had experienced a fantastic evening.

Youth Group Yarra River Cruise.

While this was a Youth Group Activity, arranged by Aimee, an invitation was extended to those who thought they were young. A small group of young and some not so young, boarded a ferry and travelled up the Yarra to Herring Island and return. The weather was perfect. The commentary on the cruise added to our knowledge and yet again a fabulous time was had by all. For some of us, one highlight was the bridge with 1000 arches, for others it was the Ice cream Parlour adjacent to the docking area. With time to spare we were able to start the tour with one flavour, and on return we enjoyed another, (because it was a warm day!)

Thank you Father Barry Green

At St Peter's we have been fortunate to have the company and assistance of Father Barry Green at our Wednesday services. Fr Barry is frequently enlisted to read a passage of scripture, which he does with pleasure and obvious enjoyment. Recently, he has been called on to conduct the Wednesday Services as Rev Jobby John has had an unprecedented run of health issues. Gall bladder concerns, followed by a broken finger which not only limits his ability to conduct services, but has ruled him out of our local cricket competition. We are most appreciative of the contribution that Barry makes to our Wednesdays. Thank you Fr Barry.

Vale Les Aldous

Les passed away peacefully on January 13, 2020 aged 83 years. He was the loving Husband of Lorna, loved Father of Debbie and Angela, Father-in-law to Brett and Matt, and Cherished Pop of Joel, Aaron, Jack, Nathan and Nicole.

The following is an extract from Rev Jobby's Eulogy:

While many keep their feelings, emotions and desires secret, we have had people like Les who said what they thought and did what they believed. I met him almost every Sunday here at St. Peter's. Did Les attend the church services? No. Did he come to church every Sunday? Yes. Was he happy with church and its members? Yes. Les was straightforward and simple, a person who spoke his heart, kept nothing to himself, and ready to support whenever it was necessary. The last time I met him was at his home back from hospital after the treatment. We spoke almost for an hour, matters pertaining to faith, community and some church history. He mentioned his discontent about changing the carpet in the church; pointing out that the old one should have lasted for another ten years; yet at the same time commended the new carpet. I probably did the most adventurous thing in that meeting; presented him with a Bible. Happily receiving it, he kept it on the table even when Lorna suggested that she will keep it safe in her custody. He had clear thoughts about his life, how life should be led, and how things should be done. And I wasn't amazed by the fact that he had everything arranged for his funeral service. He knew the ins and outs of Bundoora Square, quite concerned about the increasing inconveniences, and was quite acquainted with many in and around Bundoora.

2 Timothy 4:7- I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.

Les had fought the good fight and finished his race.

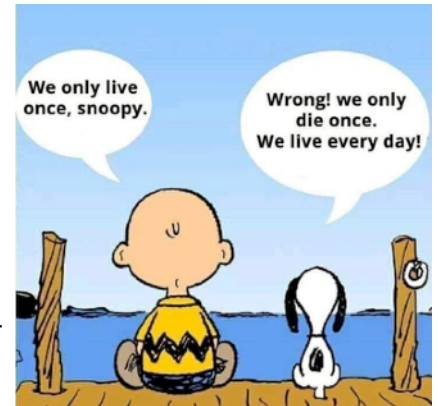

Rev Jobby, Father Barry and Silvia gave Louise a blessing and prayed for her safe return home.

After the past seven months worshipping at St Peter's Louise is leaving to return to her home in Zimbabwe. We will miss Louise. Everyone wished her well.

*Farewell
and
Good luck

Life is not a race, but a journey to be savoured each step of the way. Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery and today is a gift. That's why we call it the present.

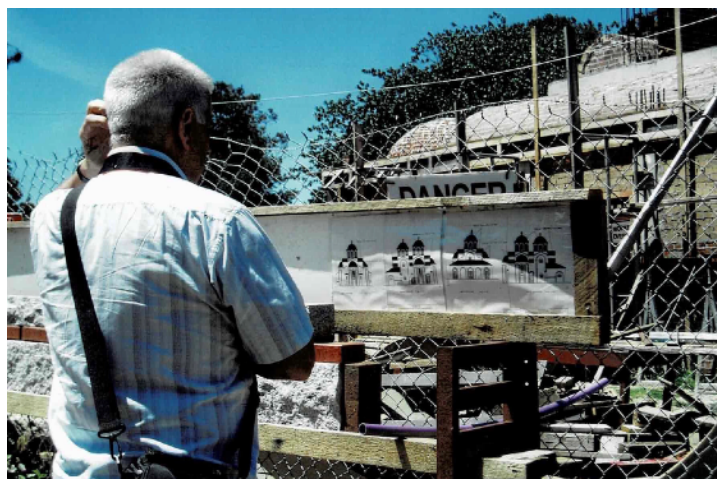

Greetings from Father Andrew Davies

Father Andrew, has travelled once again, to Australia to enjoy another few weeks of Summer, which he looks forward to as he visits his life-long friend Fr. Noel Whale at Holy Trinity, Port Melbourne. Father Andrew has asked for his best wishes to be passed onto the parishioners of St Peter's whom he remembers with much affection.

Mark the Evangelist

Mark the Evangelist was a follower of Peter and so an "apostolic man." Mark was born in 5AD in Cyrene, Pentapolis of North Africa and died in Cyrene, on 25th April 68AD, aged 62. In AD 49, about 19 years after the Ascension of Jesus, Mark travelled to Alexandria and founded the Church of Alexandria, becoming the first bishop of Alexandria. The Prayer of Thanksgiving, can be traced back to Mark himself. He is honoured as the founder of Christianity in Africa. Mark, the author of the second gospel account, is symbolised by a winged lion – a figure of courage and monarchy. The lion also represents Jesus' resurrection (because lions were believed to sleep with open eyes, a comparison with Christ in the tomb), and Christ as king. This signifies that Christians should be courageous on the path of salvation.

Saint Mark is the Saint of Barristers, Egypt and Mainar. Saint Mark's Feast Day is April 25th

St Mark's major shrine is in The Patriarchal Cathedral Basilica of Saint Mark, commonly known as St Mark's Basilica, and is the cathedral church of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Venice, northern Italy. It is the most famous of the city's churches and one of the best known examples of Italo-Byzantine architecture. The Basilica began with a swashbuckling tale of kidnapping. The first St. Mark's Basilica was built on this spot in the 9th century to house very sacred relics—relics that had been stolen! In 828, merchants from Venice stole the body of St. Mark the Evangelist, from Alexandria, Egypt. According to the legend, they snuck them past the guards by hiding them under layers of pork fat in barrels! While at sea, a storm almost drowned the grave-robbers and their precious cargo, it's said that St. Mark himself appeared to the Captain and told him to lower the sails. The ship was saved, and the merchants said they owed their safety to this miracle. The entire story is pictured on the 13th-century mosaic above the left door as you enter the basilica. This mosaic took eight Centuries to complete, are mostly in gold, and the results are astonishing. If you enter the Basilica at different times of day you can see how the light makes the colours, and scenes, look different.

Detail of the south facade of St Mark's Basilica

The Horses of Saint Mark were installed on the balcony above the portal of the basilica in about 1254.

Youth and Young Families – 2020

The 2020 Youth and Young Families started on a great note on February 14th, Valentine's Day, presumably lover's day but at St. Peter's it was a day for spreading the love among the community. We organized a range of activities based on Valentine's Day theme which everyone enjoyed. One of the highlights was our tasting challenge where everyone had to taste blind-folded what was given to them. Some of the other activities were photo booth, where you could dress up and click a photograph of yourself, Family Feud and so on. To add to the sweetness a chocolate fountain and some chocolate cake as dessert.
